

"MOON LAKE TRAIL" RIDING MOUNTAIN

In the winter months a blanket of snow covers the Manitoba landscape. A new breed of vacationer is being attracted by this wholesome beauty.

Thanked this photo of myself in Riding Mountain ended please you - just to let you know that I am keeping up with my training. So far the weather has been good, but, today it is raining. Danny and Stefan are enjoying themselves and we are going to play golf tomorrow. Mum and I are doing a lot of reading and writing. Hope the Aunt is well, love her our love.
